

Leading and Learning: Developing Tools for Collaboration with

Brenda Myers

October 21, 2009, 8:30 am to 2:30 pm

Newburgh ECSD
124 Grand Street, Newburgh

As requested following Dr. Myer's address at the Mid-Hudson Principals' Center Summer Institute, she has been invited back to our region to work with district teams to develop norms and protocols for collaborative work and to build a vision of organizations founded on learning theory. She is deeply committed to keeping the focus on students at the center of our leading.

Fees include program, materials, lunch.

Principals' Center member:

$75 per team, up to 5 participants,
$15 each additional participant

Others:

$150 per team, up to 5 participants,
$15 each additional participant

Brenda W. Myers serves as Superintendent at Groton Central School, located in Central New York. Dr. Myers was with Broome-Tioga BOCES as Deputy Superintendent for Instruction. She was a driving force behind efforts to improve student programs and performance across the region. She was instrumental in the formation of the Broome-Tioga BOCES Career & Technical High School and in advancements in the use of technology and data analysis. A member of the NYSED Commissioner's Panel on Mathematics, she leads an applied research-based focus on sharing promising practices and instructional design that assist schools to accelerate the academic performance of their students.